

Permission

The website of Case Presentations of the Hannan Municipal Hospital is created and managed by social-medical corporation Seichokai. The following guideline is expected to read carefully beforehand. The website is permitted to use only for those who comply with the guideline. The website is not available for those without the consent of the guideline.

The guideline will be revised in response to in need. Then, the confirmation and the compliance with the latest guideline are inevitably required in each time of utilization.

Guideline

- Handle with personal information: The acquisition of personal information in Hannan Municipal Hospital is righteously transacted in accordance with the regulation for protection of personal information established by social-medical corporation Seichokai.
- Copyright: All the clinical contents of documents, figures and laboratory data are attributed to Hannan Municipal Hospital. The secondary usage of the contents without permission is forbidden.
- Accuracy and reliability of the contents listed in the website: The clinical contents in this website are listed under the strict inspection and verification by our staff, which does not always mean to assure the completeness of accuracy and reliability. Accordingly, the utilization of this website attributes to the user-self responsibility.